ABOUT CHRISTIAN MEDICAL COLLEGE & HOSPITAL, LUDHIANA

The Christian Medical College Ludhiana is a Christian Educational and Research Institution established, maintained and administered by the Christian Medical College Ludhiana Society (regd.) of Christian Churches and Christian agencies. The Medical Missionary work was started in Ludhiana in the year 1881 by Miss Martha Rose and Miss Kay Greenfield popularly known as the Greenfield sisters. They were Evangelists and Educationalists from Scotland. This pioneering medical work of the Greenfield sisters was the precursor of the Medical Training and Health Care Service Program of the present Christian Medical College, Ludhiana. The Greenfield sisters and their associates organized the Health Care Educational Services in which endeavor Dr. Edith Mary Brown joined them in 1893. In 1894 the North Indian School of Medicine for Christian Women was started by Dr. Edith Mary Brown and her colleagues with the objective of training Indian women, to serve in the field of Medical Education and Health Care Services, emphasizing integration of training and health care services.

The period from 1894 to 1952 was an epoch-making era which saw the development of Women's Christian Medical School from its beginning as a School of Medicine for Christian Women. The Medical School granted LSMF diploma till 1952. In 1953 LSMF was upgraded to the MBBS course and the name of the Institution was changed to Christian Medical College to enable it to admit both men and women students. Postgraduate program started in the next decade.

Punjab, the land of five rivers is known for its rich heritage and culture. A land of hard-working people it has earned the term of bread basket of India due to its great agricultural strengths. Ludhiana is one of the oldest-established cities of Punjab with a population that has increased during recent years to around 25, 00,000 lies 312 km Northwest of Delhi and less than 150 km from the border with Pakistan. It is situated on the Grand Trunk Road running from the border through to Delhi, and is an important railway junction. Today it is one of the fastest-growing small and medium industrial centers in India.

Ludhiana is well connected to rest of India by train and road. The nearest airports are in Ludhiana, Amritsar and Chandigarh.

The institution is situated in a large campus couple of kilometers from Ludhiana Railway Station, on both sides of the Brown Road named after Dame Edith M Brown. The Campus has residential quarters for the staff, hostels for medical, dental, nursing and paramedical students, both men and women.

The various courses offered in CMC are affiliated to Baba Farid University of Health Sciences, Faridkot and other professional councils as may be applicable.

The Christian Medical College offers Degree, Postgraduate Diploma, Postgraduate Degrees, Super-specialty Degrees and Doctoral courses. The Christian Medical College, Ludhiana is a recognized institution by Medical Council of India. Each year 100 students, men and women, are admitted to the MBBS course.

The Christian Medical College Ludhiana Society (CMCL Society) is a registered as an educational and research institution established, maintained and administered by the minority Christian community as an institution of all India character with health professionals committed to the highest standards, in the Spirit of Jesus Christ for the healing ministry in India.

VISION: To impart high quality medical education, research, deliver holistic care to the nations and to reach primarily the unreached communities.

MISSION

CMCL Society, on behalf of the church, seeks to contribute to the health needs of India by training primarily Christian medical, dental, nursing, and other health professional students by doing high quality research and by providing holistic health services to the community and to the nation, with people of Christian faith serving in Christ's name alongside with those of other faiths, with those who identify with these aims and goals.

AIMS

1. To provide medical, dental, nursing and allied sciences education according to standards laid down from time to time by the Government, University or other Statutory bodies, and to arrange for the admission of students and their courses of instruction and to provide all necessary facilities possible in connection therewith.
2. To provide non-formal and continuing education programs in the health sciences.
3. To provide facilities for research into the cause of the disease, their prevention and treatment.
4. To care for the sick and the suffering with love and compassion as commanded by Jesus Christ, and to restore them to health of body and mind, giving due recognition to spiritual need in its relation to health without consideration of cast, race, creed, religion and language.

OBJECTIVES

1. To manage, maintain and run the Christian Medical College, Christian Dental College, Christian College of Nursing, Christian College of Physiotherapy, Institute of Allied Health Sciences and similar such other institutions which might be established by the Society in future, in Ludhiana, in the true Spirit of Christian service, ideals and principles in order to equip men and women for service in the promotion of health and the relief of suffering.
2. To establish, manage, administer, maintain, control and own institutions of Health Services, Research centers and Universities in India or abroad.
3. To affiliate, collaborate and enter into agreements and contracts, with institutions of health services, research centers and universities in India or abroad.

COLLEGE OF PHYSIOTHERAPY, CMC, LUDHIANA

The College of Physiotherapy has been established in 2006. The physiotherapy department of our institute is a pioneer in this field in North India. We have been training professionals for many years and now the University has approved a formal Bachelors course where we admit 20 students per annum starting from 2006.
